

INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION IN THE PREVENTION OF TRANSNATIONAL CRIMES

By: Alberto Luis Escobar Ceballos

Lawyer graduated from Santo Tomás University – Criminal Law Specialist -
Master candidate in Criminal Law – Head of Research Center of Socio-Legal “Jorge Eliécer Gaitán” – UNIMETA

Abstract

Once entered into force the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime, is hoping to prevent and combat crime more effectively. The D.O.T. provided to Member States of the United Nations of a comprehensive legal framework to fight organized crime, which includes instruments such as extradition and legal assistance in criminal matters, as well as new methods and techniques of research, assurance that assets are used to commit the crime or those who are of this product.

KEYWORDS:

Cooperation, Crime, Transnational Organized Crime, Crime, State, International criminal groups, United Nations.